Sister Mary Elizabeth will address the views of the transgender community held by organized religion and how we, as individuals, can find a way to deal with our faith and our community.

3:30-5: "How To" Finding & Keeping Members [Room: Cozumel]

Presenter: JoAnn Roberts

So, you want to start a support group? Great! Where do your members come from? Once you've found them, how do you keep them? Come and listen to JoAnn Roberts tell of her experience in the building of Renaissance, one of the largest membership-based support groups in the country. Learn what you can do to energize your group's membership outreach program.

3:30-5: Living As A Woman; The Dream & The Reality

[Room: Salon A&B]

Presenters: Eve Burchert, Chris Howey, & Renee Chevalier

There is, all too often, a gap between the dream and the reality of living full time as a woman. It is not unusual for members of our community to jump into "full time" living before they are ready or have carefully considered the costs. Several people who have faced this decision and have had to deal with it will present their views and observations on the dream and reality of living as a woman.

7-8: Reception and Cocktail Party [Room: Grand Ballroom]

a reception line consisting of our awards recipients and our community's most prominent leaders will greet you, followed by a cash bar and the warm company of your brothers and sisters. A lovely way to begin your evening.
