WELCOME FROM THE FAIR DIRECTOR

The magic of Fantasia Fair is soon to happen once again. We are excited that you will be there to share it with us. Our staff has been working very diligently throughout the year to ensure that this will be the best event you attend this year. We've gathered some of the most intelligent and influential gender professionals and specialists to assist in enhancing your gender journey.

If this is your first event, or first time venturing out in public, it may be a little bewildering to see so many TG people strolling about town. You will be awestruck by the way your inhibitions naturally diminish from being in such a comfortable setting, and soon you will be one of those individuals strolling about town as well. You will then realize that this is the beginning of something wonderful.

If you are returning to the Fair, we thank you for joining us once again and making the magic happen. It is our returning participants that bring continuity and a genuine sense of sisterhood to the Fair. Your continued support allows FanFair and the Outreach Institute to reach those who may be reluctant to reach out. We truly thank you for your dedication!

In recent years, Fantasia Fair has undergone many changes to respond to the everchanging community. Without your input, we would not know how these changes affect your needs as an individual. So please, take the time to speak with our professional and administrative staff. Your input is of the utmost importance to ensure that FanFair and the Outreach Institute remain relevant and successful.

On behalf of the staff of Fantasia Fair '97 and the board of the Outreach Institute of Gender Studies, I'd like to welcome each and every one of you and wish you a most exciting and pleasant week at Fantasia Fair. Enjoy... It's all for you!

Sincerely,

Ms. Weslee Avery, Director

Welcome To Provincetown

Provincetown - a unique place at the very tip of Cape Cod, welcomes you to the 1997 Fantasia Fair. We have a long tradition of welcoming a diverse group of visitors which began in 1650 when the Pilgrims first landed here.

In the town there are many fine shops, restaurants and galleries, all of which will be glad to see and serve you. And around us there are 30 miles of National Seashore with great beaches and glorious dunes. Walking and biking trails make these easily accessible.

You will find Provincetown a friendly place where you will be welcome and comfortable. If the Chamber of Commerce can assist you in any way, please feel free to call on us.

Celebrating the union of mind, body and spirit for an enlightened life.

Friends await you at Fantasia Fair. Old friends, for many; new friends, for everyone... because each Fair is a discovery. We'd like to share some thoughts with you about Fantasia Fair—what it is, what it's been, and where it's going in the future.

FanFair Moments That Have Made A Difference

- Coming to the only CD gathering that uses a whole town as its meeting room.
- Stepping out of the front door of an inn and walking down the street in the bright Cape Cod sunlight, as a woman. The first time - afraid, yes, but so proud. And then...the fear goes away.
- Sitting in the warm glow of the bar at the Pilgrim House, laughing with friends till your cheekbones start to ache.
- Attending a session with Niela Miller, a therapist who matches her deep knowledge of gender diversity with her affection for Fair participants. And, you accomplish more in an hour than in a week full of hours with other therapists.
- Sharing the difficulties a new friend is having at home as you talk and stroll the beach front, accompanied by the tiny, rippling waves from the ocean, past the balconies of the Watermark where other participants wave right back.
- Battering an oven-warm muffin in The Chicago House dining room early one morning, reluctant to release your white coffee mug, and discussing with bleary-eyed housemates only two topics: gender issues and everything else in the world.

- Shopping (window or otherwise) for one-of-a-kind items up and down narrow, cozy Commercial Street: leather and lace, fisherman's sweaters and sequined vests; artist-designed jewelry priced from just two dollars to far too much.
- Dining at a Luncheon Seminar where a speaker you never heard of offers thoughts about gender life you never encountered before.
- Breathing the cool breeze that comes in saltwater fresh and all yours.
- Bowing your head in the Unitarian Church, Fair participants and townspeople together, gay and straight, gentle people all. But people who stand up strong for their right—and each other's right—to exist without excuse or apology.
- Decorating the wee hours with conversation at Roomers, the inn that never sleeps.
- Taking the stage in the FanFair Follies, in the spotlight and performing to volleys of applause and yelps of appreciation. And leaving the stage with a layer of confidence you didn't have before.
- Bumping into an old friend who is also out on the long pier, taking pictures of the fishing trawlers and the Provincetown buildings, arrayed tightly along the oceanfront.
- Climbing the dunes that cushion the opposite coastline only five minutes away, finding a time to be by yourself, peaceful, and at rest.
- Hugging the friend you met the first day and haven't seen since. Looking back on five days of joy and realizing there are still three days to go.
- Exploring new issues and discovering different paths at the seminars you attend, feeling your mind, perhaps long-shuttered and locked, begin to reach out and open.
- Dancing "till you drop" on the wavy floor of the A-House, in a spill of spinning lights and sound, followed by late-night pizza at Spiritus with a friend.

Planning for a Magical Week

*"Being well dressed is not a question of having expensive clothes or the 'right' clothes- I don't care if you're wearing rags-but they must suit you."
--Louise Nevelson*

We'd like to share some tips with you about packing and preparing for Fantasia Fair. For many newcomers, this is the first time you have dressed completely as a woman for an extended period of time. As a result, a little more planning may be in order. We hope this advice makes your trip a little easier and a lot more enjoyable. The most important tip of all?
Be yourself and have fun!

Wardrobe Planning

What to wear, what to wear? It's an eternal question which becomes even more challenging when packing for the fickle weather of Cape Cod in October. Be sure to stick in a raincoat and umbrella and some flats for the rough pavement. However, there are some basic guidelines that can help as you assemble your week's attire.

How Are You Traveling?

If you're arriving by personal vehicle, you can obviously bring as much as you can stuff into your car, van or eighteen-wheeler. However, if you're coming in via airplane or carpooling, you may need to conserve space and make some critical decisions.

Color Theme Approach

Coordinate your basic dress/skirt/blouse/slacks/sweater wardrobe around one or two basic color ranges (earth tones, jewel tones, pastels, etc.), colors that make you look terrific! Then, you can mix and match those items for day and evening wear as you wish, using layering to adjust to whatever temperature Provincetown gives us. Most of all, bring clothes you love to wear, because this is your week!

Bring Something Dressy

You should have two cocktail dresses (or plan to accessorize one differently), as well as one formal gown for the Awards Banquet. Remember to bring all the jewelry, shoes and accessories those outfits require.

Bring Something Casual

Not grungy... but relaxed and comfortable. You may decide to go whale watching or hiking on the dunes, and you wouldn't want to do those things in an organza sheath and stiletto pumps (or would you?). In any case, jeans, flats or sneakers, a sweatshirt and a warm jacket will prove invaluable.

Bring Something Frivolous

If you plan to take part in the FanFair Follies and/or the Fantasy Ball (costume party anything goes), don't forget to bring everything you'll need. There are marvelous clothing stores in P'town, but not much in the way of stage or costume apparel. . . unless you want to dress up as a Portuguese fisherman!

Odds & Ends

Remember to pack all those little things: cosmetics and beauty products, jewelry and scarves, pantyhose and socks, shoes for all occasions (four to six pairs should do it), underwear and foundation garments, gloves and umbrella, etc. And you'll want a couple nice nightgowns, robe and slippers for your inn's pajama parties.

Happy Packing!

FanFair Resources

FanFair Gazette

This daily newsletter will keep you informed of changes to Programs and locations of activities, as well as contain "newsy" articles about the Fair and its participants. It is an indispensable part of your Fair experience. The Gazette is delivered to each house on the evening preceding the day's activities. Look for it or ask your House Mother for a copy.

FanFair Book/Video Store

IFGE will bring it's Traveling Book Store to FanFair on Friday & Saturday. Books and videos of interest to transgendered persons, their spouses and professionals, will be available. The Bookstore will be located at the Gifford House. Hours will vary, so watch for the listed times of operation in the daily FanFair Gazette.

The Elite Repeat Boutique

In addition to the Bookstore there is the Elite Repeat Boutique featuring quality used clothing. This clothing has been donated to the Boutique which is operated as a fundraising activity for the Outreach Institute. Please consider donating that beautiful gown that no longer fits (or never did), or other quality clothing to the Boutique. Who knows? You may find something that is really you!

Some Advice

Please leave your macho hangups and attitudes at home. Get to know your sisters and realize the process of bonding is different for men and women. While men usually want to know if the other guy is "tough enough," a woman wants to know if the other woman is "sensitive enough." Women don't hide their emotions behind a facade of calm or anger. Women share their troubles with one another. When they feel close enough to cry with each other it usually leads to serious bonding.

One of the big problems most of us face in life is being defined by others. Often when we meet we exchange some form of credential. In casual encounters, women are far more apt to greet each other with some small compliment rather than a business card. Pay that little compliment; say something nice.

Be sensitive to the needs of your sisters, especially in matters of privacy. We come from all walks of life. Some of us have legitimate need for privacy and guard it jealously. That is each person's right.

We don't need credentials here or checkable references. Realize not everyone will be as "out" in their everyday life as you might be. Especially among first-timers, there is a certain amount of fear. Respect the person who does not wish to answer personal questions. "Judge Not, Lest Ye Be Judged."

The Town

Shopping Heaven

Unique jewelry, superb leather clothing, special fashions, arts and crafts, collectables... you can find it all along Commercial Street that runs the length of Provincetown. Clear the decks (and your credit cards) for some serious shopping, or just window shop with a friend. It's a shopping experience you'll remember.

Dining Delights

Fine dining abounds in P'Town, with fresh seafood the entree-of-choice. We haven't exactly computed this, but it seems there are more excellent restaurants per resident in Provincetown than anywhere on Earth. You could dine here splendidly for more than two weeks and never visit the same restaurant twice. The toughest decision you may have is which quality restaurant to choose.

Amazing Attractions

You can choose the adventure you want: from whale watch excursions, to dune buggy tours, to climbing Pilgrim Tower and enjoying a spectacular view of the surrounding landscape. We invite you to explore the wonderful attractions that are only found in this special community.

Getting to know your new "hometown."

For many of us who have been to the Fair before, Provincetown has become a special kind of "hometown," a place where we first remember being totally accepted as who we are. So we'd like you to know a little bit about your new hometown.

Provincetown, located inside the sheltering curl of Cape Cod, was the first landing of the Pilgrims on November 21, 1620. Shortly after landing, the Pilgrims gathered on the Mayflower and drew up the Mayflower Contract, which is considered to be a root document of our Constitution.

Growing to become a major fishing seaport by the mid 1800's Provincetown boasted over 50 wharfs jutting out into the bay. The white wood frame New England sea coast homes, built for the captains and crews of those tall ships, established the flavor of the town you will live in for a week.

Provincetown was discovered by imaginative explorers and has been inhabited from the beginning by people clearly focused on living as they wished. The town also has a storied heritage involving the visual, theatrical and written arts. Perhaps it is this history that has made Provincetown both a symbol and an embodiment of the respect for individual human rights. Its large gay population is active in all aspects of the municipality, and lives side-by-side with others in friendship and cooperation.

Over the years many of our friends from Provincetown have worked hard to make the Fair possible. Fantasia Fair has found a home in Provincetown, and we want you to share it with us and the remarkable, caring people of this wonderful place.

Your Automobile & Provincetown

Provincetown and the Commonwealth have no regulations concerning the manner of dress while operating a motor vehicle. If you choose to drive, carry legal identification, a valid driver's license, and obey all traffic laws. If you are stopped for an infraction, remain calm and show the officer your legal identification. This is not the time to pull out the $5 fake ID. Treat the officer as a lady or gentleman and you will be treated as such. We do not have legal jurisdiction to enforce any parking privileges. The short term parking near the Hospitality Center is available only during Registration. Your lodging site should provide you with a parking space. There are five Public parking areas.

The one on Commercial Street (by the wharf) is lighted and patrolled by the police

PLEASE OBSERVE ALL TOWN REGULATIONS CONCERNING STREET/CURB PARKING.

The Fair is not responsible for any tickets received in violation of city ordinance.

Randy Godfrey, Innkeeper

Brief History of Fantasia Fair

Fantasia Fair was conceived and created in 1974 by members of a social contact club called Cherrystones of Boston. "There is a tremendous need for crossdressers and transsexuals to learn about themselves in an open, socially tolerant environment," said Betsey Shaw, one of the founders. "We want to have a program that can help us grow in practical, social and educational ways," said Linda Franklin, another founder. So, over that year, discussions centered on where to have such a program, what would be included in it, and how it would be marketed to CDs, TVs and TSs throughout the United States.

Fantasia Fair 1 (1974) was held in Provincetown, Mass., because the town had a reputation for being tolerant of all visitors, regardless of their sex, gender orientation or roles. There were about 40 participants, including one couple who came from California. The Fair got lots of support and help from cosmetic consultants who came from the Boston area, from two female impersonators who lived in Provincetown, and two doctors from the Cape area. Together with much support from local innkeepers, eateries and the newspaper, Fantasia Fair I became an "event to remember."

From this humble beginning, the next 22 Fairs evolved, each program building on the previous one, expanded or modified to incorporate the many facets of the complex social behaviors of the crossgender community. During this period, the Fair served as a model for other, similar events to evolve in other parts of the country. The "Be All. . ." weekend is an example of a direct descendant of the Fair.

The Fair is basically a holiday experience for the crossdresser/crossgender community. It is a mix of practical, social and educational opportunities designed to help in the personal growth and heightened awareness of one's "femme" persona. Included in this smorgasbord of activities are the beauty program seminars and workshops, cocktail parties, awards banquets, a fashion show, and our own special talent show.

The financing of the first Fair came from personal loans of some Cherrystone members. This, plus the fees charged for participation, provided the basis for marketing and developing the programs. It continues to serve as the means by which Fantasia Fair happens. Over the years, we have relied on the generosity of Fair administrators, individual participants and professional health care-givers to financially support both this and other Outreach Institute programs. It is our firm belief that we need to provide broad based educational programs not just for our community, but also to the helping professionals who work with us. These include M.D.s, psychologists, social workers, lawyers, nurses, judges and the military.

The Outreach Institute of Gender Studies is committed to programs which broaden understanding of our community, offer resources to Health Care Professionals, further personal growth of individuals facing gender related issues and inform the public of the diversity of gender. The current organization is non-profit with all proceeds dedicated to supporting the above goals.

Over the past 22 years, the Institute has "pushed back the frontiers of ignorance and bigotry" by representing our gender concerns to important professional organizations such as the Society for the Scientific Study of Sexuality, Association for Humanistic Psychology, and the American Association of Sex Educators, Counselors and Therapists. Fantasia Fair and the Outreach Institute stand proud of their small, but important, achievements.

The Outreach Institute of Gender Studies

Statement of Purpose

It is the purpose of OIGS to educate and conduct research in all aspects related to the phenomenon of gender, as it interfaces with human sexuality. As a social construct, gender phenomena includes a unique and a variable set of attributes that communicate and identify to all, who a person is, what a person does and how a person acts. It is the basis by which societies and cultures structure themselves. To achieve these goals this Institute will:

- Provide programs which broaden understanding about diversity of the gender experience, expression, and perception in daily life.
- Create and implement research projects and studies designed to further the understanding about gender as a social phenomenon.
