GENERAL INFORMATION

Case Western Reserve University Department of Psychiatry and The Harry Benjamin International Gender Dysphoria Association, Inc. will sponsor the Eleventh International Symposium on Gender Dysphoria at Cleveland, Ohio, September 20-23, 1989. Professionals from The Netherlands, Germany, Sweden, France, Turkey, Venezuela, Canada, and the United States will address the medical, psychological and sociocultural issues related to gender dysphoria. Presentations will be made in childhood gender development and disorders, endocrinological and hormonal aspects of transsexualism, surgical management and techniques, psychological studies, cross-cultural studies, and outcome studies.

LOCATION AND ACCOMMODATIONS

All program sessions will be held at the Stouffer Tower City Plaza Hotel, 24 Public Square, Cleveland, Ohio. The hotel is conveniently located in the heart of Cleveland's business center. Stouffer Tower City Plaza Hotel is only 25 minutes from Cleveland Hopkins International Airport via Rapid Transit, limo or taxi. There is easy access via I-90, I-77 and I-71. Amtrak is just minutes away. Cleveland Stadium, the Playhouse Square theater district, the exciting night life of The Flats, and excellent shopping and dining are all within walking distance. Accommodations have been reserved at the Stouffer Tower City Plaza Hotel. These accommodations will be held by reservation by symposium participants until August 23. Reservations made after this date are subject to space availability. RESERVATIONS ARE TO MADE DIRECTLY WITH THE HOTEL. A hotel reservation card is attached for your convenience.
