Dear Eldon,

Just a quick note to let you know that The Advocate finally published my article. It's in the current issue (#526), so see if you can pick it up somewhere.

I'm a little unhappy with it, as I started out with an educational kind of article on the female-to-gay male syndrome, but The Advocate's graphics and lay-out turned it into a personal expose of "L. Sullivan." Ugh. I know you're concerned about my becoming "too public," but I'm feeling less paranoid the longer I live.

Anyway, it's done, and I'm proud of that!
