

TRANSSEX

Beginning Tuesday, February 24th, KQED FM will make available to the national Transsexual Counseling Unit one hour of air time, 2 to 3 p.m., every fourth Tuesday of each month for the next three to four months for the purpose of discussing transsexualism with various guests.

One point of emphasis will be the differences between transsexualism, homosexuality, and transvesticism.

Various attorneys, doctors, cops and social workers will be featured.

The shows will all be done in the street and will be open to the public as an education into the medical phenomena of transsexualism.
