Dear Lou:

Thanks for your letter and enclosures. I am home sick with the flu so I have a chance to write to you. It was good talking with you on the phone but I won't be calling anyone long distance again for quite sometime as my finances are the poorest right now.

I am enclosing the first (featuring the tribute to you on p.8) and second issue of "Gender Networker". I only have about 20 subscribers at present and I need roughly 100 to make the venture worth while in terms of time, energy and money, so I would greatly appreciate it if you would publish my ad (enclosed), and also, mention again, that back issues of "Metamorphosis Magazine" and Newsletter are still available, for $86 total (or write for issue highlights). Contact: GENDER WORKER, Box 1224, Station A, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M5W 1G7 (416-[redacted]; no long distance calls returned, but they can leave their address on my machine and I'll send out info')

I hope things are going alright for you. My job (a bank clerk in a back office centralization unit thru a temp agency) will be up in a week. I wish I could establish a career in my line of work: journalism/publishing, research/ education, counselling/social work

I plan to call it quits with [redacted] (my lady friend) the next time she comes up for a visit (Oct. 14), as this non-relationship of eight years has gone on far too long for my liking I need a person who will relate to me in a 50-50 relationship, and who will at least consider my needs and wants for a change. I am interested in someone else and plan to tell her tomorrow when I see her. Hope she feels the same way I do, as I sure can use some tender lovin' right about now. I hope your love life is going better than mine.

I want to ask your permission if you would let me include a copy of your "Genitoplasty Diary" in my information packet on F-M TSism, which I hope to make available soon for a service charge of $25. Of course, I will also include a sample copy of your newsletter and Kim Stuart's review of your handbook. Please advise a.s.a.p

I am eagerly waiting for April to roll around so I can finally get to visit with you when I come to S.F. for the IFGE convention. Take care now. Love and Peace.

Your bro',

Robert [redacted]
