

Anchor Inn Beach House

PROVINCETOWN'S MOST GRACIOUS BEACH HOUSE • 175 Commercial Street, Provincetown, Mass. 02657 • 508/487-0432

The beautifully situated Anchor Inn offers the best of Provincetown to its guests -- central location, private beach, and spectacular view of picturesque Provincetown Harbor.

Gentle sea breezes on the inn's veranda, a perfect view of a romantic Cape Cod sunset, or quiet relaxation in the inn's comfortable private rooms or guest lounge are just steps from the bustling excitement of Commercial Street shops, art galleries, and restaurants.

Anchor Inn's tastefully furnished rooms have private baths and televisions and many offer views of the harbor. Choose a room with private sun deck or enjoy direct access to the beach, a private terrace and private entrance in a cabana room on the beach.

For the Adventurousome

Anchor Inn will make arrangements for its guests for rides over the great, sweeping sand dunes of Provincetown, for deep sea fishing, schooner sailing, speed boating, surf casting, bicycling or horseback riding. Guests may swim at beautiful New Beach in town or find a private spot along the magnificent beaches lining the harbor and ocean sides of the peninsula.

Going Back in Time

Experience Provincetown in her days of whaling glory. Take an early morning walk along the wharf or watch the fishing schooners unload in the last light of day. See relics from the Pilgrims' first landing on exhibit at the Historical Museum. Climb

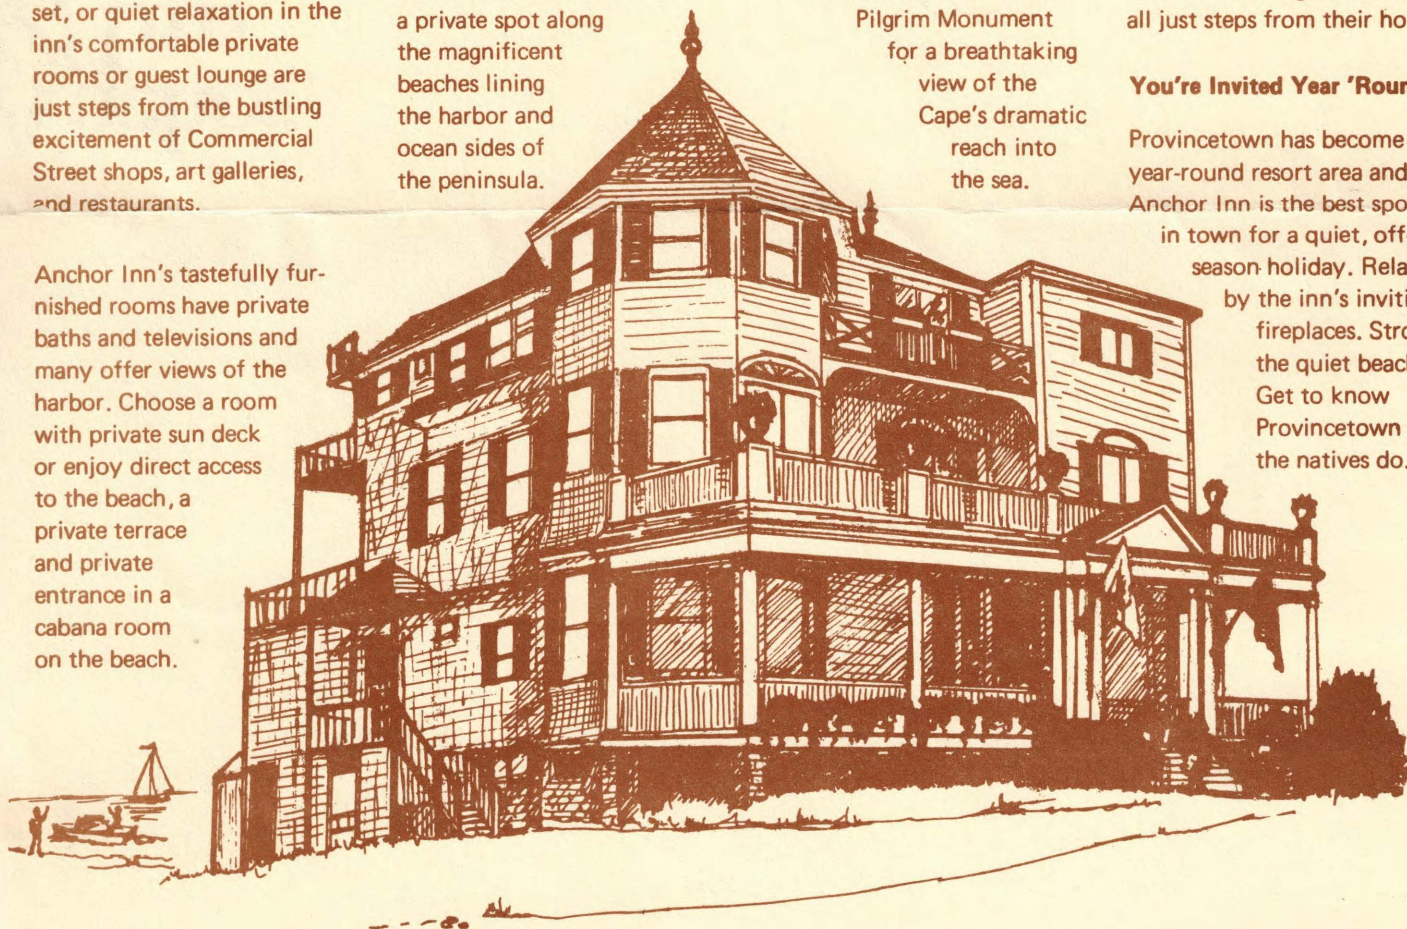

Provincetown's famous Pilgrim Monument for a breathtaking view of the Cape's dramatic reach into the sea.

In the Heart of Provincetown

For art enthusiasts, shoppers or browsers, Provincetown offers a dizzying array of choices -- antiques or baubles, fine art or sidewalk portraits, fried clams or fettucine alfredo, cotton candy or zabaglione -- busy little Provincetown has it all. And for Anchor Inn guests it's all just steps from their hotel.

You're Invited Year 'Round

Provincetown has become a year-round resort area and Anchor Inn is the best spot in town for a quiet, off-season holiday. Relax by the inn's inviting fireplaces. Stroll the quiet beach. Get to know Provincetown as the natives do.

Come to Provincetown and the Anchor Inn and see for yourself.
