

Peter Sewally, alias Ann Eliza Erans, alias Beef Steak Pete, a well known darkey, was taken into custody about two o'clock yesterday morning, for sailing under false colors, having been found perambulating West Broadway, decorated in a lady's dress and shawl, also with a tastefully made "kiss me quick" bonnet upon his woolly head, and a reticule upon his arm. The lateness of the hour, however, led Capt. Perry, of the 5th ward, to scrutinize poor Pete rather closely, when the true state of the case became apparent, and with the assistance of officers Lewis and Martin, Peter, after some show of fight, was taken to the Tombs and locked up.
