Dear Lou:

I'm glad you liked the GENDER WORKER AWARD plaque I sent you and I'm also gratified to know ETVG is honouring you (with a dinner), too. It's about time you got some recognition from the TG community after all these years of hard work and dedicated service.

Thanks so much for the reviewer copy of your biography of Jack Bee Garland. It's really great stuff and I'm so pleased you were able to bring to light yet another probable early F-M TS. So far, there have been only two biographies (MICHAEL NEE LAURA by Liz Hodgkinson and yours, FROM FEMALE TO MALE) and only two autobiographies of F-M TSs published (EMERGENCE by Mario Martino and SO DIFFERENT by Peter Stirling), and also a semiautobiographical novel of a probable (I think) F-M TS (THE WELL OF LONELINESS by Radclyffe Hall). And, Mike Eliot is still trying to get his manuscript published (CROSSING THE LINE, which I reviewed in a past issue of "Metamorphosis Magazine"). Additionally, Josiah Perkins, one of my F-M contacts, is now in the process of writing his lifestory, as well. For sometime there was a long period of virtually nothing and now, out of the blue, there's a veritable plethora of F-M publications! Well it's about time! I'll be commencing my personal memoirs next February on my 39th birthday.

I'm enclosing my review for publication in your next issue of FTM and I'm also sending it to several other TS and F-M TS periodicals, as well as a few professional sexological journals. Hope it sells!

Take care for now and please stay in touch.

Best wishes,

Rupert Raj-Gauthier
Director, GENDER WORKER

P.S. Could you please mail the enclosed letter to Kim Stuart as it was returned to me "Wrong address/Unknown". I sent it to: [REDACTED]
